Healthcare Finally Joined 21st Century Online Consumerism

110,000,000 Americans are covered by self-funded (self-insured) employer plans. Both the companies and their employees struggle with healthcare costs. Online consumerism has faced two main challenges – price transparency upfront and employee engagement with innovative solutions. Well, not anymore!

DoctorGlobe is the first and only domestic hospital-shopping platform, assisting companies and employees to discover better care for less. We utilize big-data with a crowd-wisdom approach to introduce change in healthcare-consumers' habits.

The Most Flexible:

Can display your provider in-network, out-of-network, our network, and all of the above.

It's the first and only platform to find and rank U.S. domestic hospitals anywhere from one mile to 4,500 miles.

It ranks what participants are most interested in – quality, distance, and their bonus for making a smart choice.

Bottom line - it's all about choice.

The ultimate hospital-shopping platform surfing your existing healthcare benefits plan

Finds and ranks quality care providers who charge under your employees' area price

The Most Adaptable:

Tell us what your average bill on employees' healthcare is, and we will find you better care for less.

Tell us the minimum you would like to save on your employee's care, and leave the rest to us.

Tell us what you'd like your employees' bonus to be, or let us suggest what we think would work.

Bottom Line - it's all about you.

The Most Affordable:

You get to decide how to combine two pay options, which you can change periodically:

1) A modest percent of whatever savings we create by inspiring your plan participants to select Better Care for Less.

2) A few bucks per-employee-per-month, based on your employee count.

Bottom line – a better bottom line.
